

National Organization of Italian American Women
in collaboration with Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò

cordially invites you to attend

THE DA VINCI CODE: FACTS, FICTIONS, AND THEIR CONSEQUENCES

a presentation by the Rev. Aldo J. Tos, MA, PhD

In honor of Italian Heritage and Culture Month

Leonardo da Vinci
Painter and Inventor, 1452-1519

Thursday, October 19, 2006, 6:30-8:30pm
Casa Italiana Zerilli-Marimò at New York University
24 West 12th Street
(Between Fifth Avenue and Avenue of the Americas)

Father Tos is a native New Yorker and a priest with the Archdiocese of New York. He did his graduate studies in Philosophy of Education, Philosophy and History at the Catholic University of America, Biblical Theology at Union Theological Seminary, NY and Scripture & Liturgy at General Theological Seminary, NY. Rev. Tos was pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Staten Island, 1976-1985 and St. Joseph's Church in Greenwich Village, 1985-2003 of which he is Pastor Emeritus. He is currently involved in biblical and theological research and presents lectures on religious topics and their contemporary significance. Rev. Tos has done his presentation of the Da Vinci Code at St. Thomas More in New York City.

"Intrigue and menace mingle in one of the finest mysteries I've ever read. An amazing tale with enigma piled on secrets stacked on riddles." This is what Clive Cussler; #1 New York Times bestselling author said about Dan Brown's book THE DA VINCI CODE, come and hear what Reverend Aldo J. Tos has to say.

Seats are limited. RSVP to 212-642-2003 or NOIAW@aol.com by October 12, 2006.